MEMORANDUM FOR: [redacted]

SUBJECT: Commendation

ILLEGIB

1. From about January to August 1954 you were engaged on an Agency activity of special sensitivity and importance. It is my pleasure and privilege to extend to you my personal commendation for your splendid contribution to this project. The quality of your performance contributed essentially to the accomplishment of our objective and is an example of the high professional achievement we are all seeking to develop in the Agency.

2. In order that your contribution may receive appropriate recognition, a copy of this memorandum is being placed in your permanent personnel file.
